

→ WHERE NOW PARIS

Our Picks

COOL LANDINGS

Tarmac

Located on rue de Lyon in the 12th arrondissement, minutes away from Gare de Lyon you will find Tarmac a contemporary brasserie. With a warm and welcoming ambiance, Tarmac offers traditional cuisine with a twist thanks to the chef Arnaud Bertrand. Surrounded by fun and original artwork, enjoy their tartar of tuna with seaweed followed by their pesto penne served with Serrano ham or the roasted bass served with dry fennel and fresh beans, and seal the deal with their mouth-watering dark chocolate moist cake or the mango pudding with rum. Tarmac 33 rue de Lyon (12th), 01 43 41 97 70

SHAKE, SHAKE, SHAKE

Always idolised Tom Cruise in the hit movie Cocktail and thought, "I can do that!"? Release your inner barman and mix your favourite drinks using this sleek shaker. Measuring 18cm and available in silver, it will complete any bar and you'll be the envy of all your friends as you serve up delicious cocktails. So get shaking away. Available at Boutique Shanghai Tang à La Maison de la Chine, 76 rue Bonaparte (6th) 01 40 51 95 16 www.maisondelachine.fr

LION SHOTS

La Cantine du Faubourg invites photographer Laurent Baheux to expose Le regard des animaux sur l'homme a showcase of photographs of wildlife in Africa. Fascinated by Africa the land of lions, elephants and zebras he has pursued it since 2002. A personal journey this is the first glimpse of a work in progress. Describing the continent as a land of contrast, Baheux explains: "The black and white is an artistic choice that allows me to show what I want. The shadows and the light are my primary materials. I work with them to immortalise rare and authentic moments." 105 rue du Faubourg Saint-Honore (8th) 01 42 56 22 22 www.lacantine.com

